

TIPS FOR EFFICIENT HEATING

Additional sources: energy.gov, ahrinet.org

Tune and clean your boiler

Clean heat exchanger and maintain steam traps

Change your filters at regular intervals

Review your equipment AFUE rating and contact First Point Mechanical for Higher Efficiency options

Check for inadequate piping insulation

Review energy rebate programs with First Point Mechanical

Air balance your building's air distribution system. Check vent connection pipe.

Determine if your building's heating zones are up to date with any changes to your building

Determine if programmable thermostats are up to date with any changes to your building

847.483.8080

firstpointmechanical.com

info@firstpointmechanical.com